Such a prestigious fit-out demanded the highest specification in terms of glass partitioning solutions. Optima's high performing Optima Revolution 100 double glazed system with switchable glass was selected to create client meeting rooms, along with Optima Asia Affinity double glazed doors, which offer market-leading acoustic performance.

The end result was a unique and inspirational working environment which exudes quality.

"Optima did a great job installing their product without issue and contributed towards creating a build environment the client would be proud of."
